How it Works.

Send your problem art files to projects@riptaw.com and give us the following info:

How it's being imprinted, the imprint size, any PO number for the job, other specific requirements and your name and contact information.

If you feel this is a rush job tell us when your submission deadline as specifically as possible.

We will then respond with a quote usually within an hour and upon approval we place your job in queue for processing.

We will send the files back asap but no later than the next business day.

Bari Cook is our intake coordinator and both she and I can be reached at the numbers above.
